

Supplementary Fig. 2. A patient who underwent cranioplasty with a 3D bone flap. The contour is asymmetrically sunken because of the temporal muscle atrophy on the right side compared to the contralateral side.

3D: Three-dimensional.